News and Sports

Listen for news updates weekdays at 10 am and 2 pm, and for our evening newscast weekdays at 5 pm.

WXDU Sports will also be on the air weekdays at 5 pm with sports updates. Tune in to hear the latest.

Special Shows

On weekends, WXDU features some of our most popular programming — our special shows. Don't move it from 88.7 FM to hear reggae, blues, jazz, women's music, comedy, old time American Rock 'n' Roll, new age and acoustic music, and the syndicated Hearts of Space. Check the schedule!

Giveaways

As always, we give away lots of music, in the form of records, tapes, and concert tickets. Listen in!

Music View

WXDU is proud to be an affiliate of Music View, the national progressive music interview show. Listen for minute long Music View features throughout the day, and tune in on Sunday evenings at 10:30 pm for a whole half-hour of Music View.

DUKE STUDENT RADIO

SPRING

'88

Greetings -- Welcome to the Spring 1988 WXDU program guide. How have you been? Things at WXDU have been grand. We're rockin and rollin with our new second frequency (90.7fm) for the Duke Campus and the DJ's sound awesome! But that is something you'll have to find out for yourself.

And this guide's sole purpose is to help you do just that. If you've never seen one of our Program Guides before, it contains not only our but other valuable information about WXDU as well. It's just another way of trying to get you, the listener, more aware of what's happening here at 88.7 and 90.7.

We aim to bring you the best and the newest in all kinds of music—from progressive rock, blues, and reggae to jazz and new age.

to give our DJ's a call at 684-8870 or 684-8871 and always keep tuned for record and ticket giveaways, as well as WXDU sponsored events.

—keep the schedule where you can see it and the radio tuned to 88.7fm or 90.7fm 24 hours a day!
